RECOGNITION OF PRIOR LEARNING (RPL) CHECKLIST

- Application for RPL is undertaken before enrolment commences.
- Filled out and signed RPL Application Form section.
- Conversation with Course Assessor.
- Direct Evidence that may be required to reflect experience (depending of course requirement) e.g. record keeping systems, operation schedules, spreadsheets developed, correspondence (letters, memos, fax messages and emails) you have written, diary notes you have made, completed job cards for work that you have done during your normal work activities, job specifications developed by you, procedures, monthly, annual or financial reports, business plans, appraisals or team reviews that you have completed, videos of your work, photographic evidence of your work, in other words direct evidence is anything that you have either produced yourself or for which you have been primarily responsible.
- Indirect Evidence that may be required to reflect experience (depending of course requirements) e.g. workplace supervisor reports/references, magazine or newspaper articles about you, prizes, certificates or other forms of commendation, minutes of meetings which contain information on your participation and performance in specific activities, letters of appreciation from clients or work colleagues, references from previous employers, video recordings/photographs of activities you have undertaken which can be verified by a third party, witness testimony or third party reports - this could include statements from other people to support your claim for RPL. You might include managers, supervisors, previous employers, customers and colleagues. These are NOT references: the information contained in this type of statement must be relevant to the learning outcomes, your witnesses may be contacted to verify their reports.
- Any other evidence required (not stated above e.g. personal statements or supplementary evidence). Or as stated in conversation with the Assessor.
- Verified evidence from the above examples attached.
- Refer to the Student Handbook for more information and how we charge.
